

CONFERENCE MODULE PROGRAMME

THURSDAY 27 NOVEMBER 2008

FREE KEYNOTE

09.30 Boris Johnson
A video address from the Mayor of London

09.35 Alison Nimmo
director of design & regeneration, ODA

11.15 Paul Clark MP
Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Transport

13.00 Adrian Wyatt
Chief executive, Quintain

15.15 Iain Wright MP
Communities and Local Government Minister

PAID-FOR CONFERENCE MODULES

Sessions in the Buro Happold and Crest Nicholson Suites cost £90+VAT each

FREE SEMINARS

Seminars are free-to-attend

Lead sponsor

Building the UK's first eco-region sponsored by:

Buro Happold Conference Suite

Crest Nicholson Conference Suite

Building the UK's first eco-region

State of the Gateway LIVE!

10.00 BH5 International City Leaders' Forum
10.00-11.10
This session is a unique opportunity to hear from two distinguished and highly successful international city leaders.

Turin and Chair of Turin Olympic Games Committee reveals lesson from The Turin 2006 Olympics as a catalyst for the future of the city
Cllr Michael Barnett Chairman of Economic Development, Auckland Region, and Chairman of Auckland Plus

Moderator: Greg Clark, global cities and regions advisor
Valentine Castellano, former Mayor of

Sponsored by

G5 Building schools in the Thames Gateway
10.00-11.10
Who is responsible for planning, phasing, funding and procuring the huge increase in schools capacity needed to meet the needs of a rapid increase in population across the Gateway (one equivalent to that of a city the size of Leeds)?

Chair: Gary Sullivan, chair, TGSEP

Tim Byles, chief executive, Partnership for Schools
John Middleton, head of economic development, LTGDC
David Godden, chief operating officer, Landsec Trillium
Grahame Ward, director resources, Kent County Council
Stephen Castle, Essex County Council
Sponsored by

10.00 Case study: One Gallions
10.00-10.25
Peter Halsall, managing director, Bioregional Quintain
Duncan Price, director, ESD

Active House
10.50-11.15
Danish architect Ivan Lyngby outlines the concepts and technologies behind the Danish low energy house

Redbridge & Havering
10.00-10.25
Speakers include Roger McFarland, head of regeneration and strategic planning, London Borough of Havering, Mark Bradbury, deputy director of development for London Riverside, LTGDC, Nick Simons, Circle Anglia and Manisha Patel from PRP Architects

Bexley
10.50-11.15
Will Tuckly, chief executive of the London Borough of Bexley describes progress and opportunities across the borough

11.45 BH6 Transformational developments - East London
11.45-12.55
Five major housing schemes in East London account for 72,000 of the Gateway's new homes. The panel highlights progress on some of these key schemes and debate whether delivery is on track.

Moderator: Greg Clark, global cities and regions advisor
Andrew Storey, joint chief executive, Greenwich Peninsula
Ben Denton, director, First Base
Clive Wilding, project director, Barking Riverside

Sponsored by

G6 Realities of delivering zero carbon homes
11.45-12.55
What needs to happen in terms of building fabric, the supply of renewables, planning, scale, density, governance and ownership to make the cost of delivering zero carbon homes more achievable?

Chair: Richard McCarthy, director general, CLG
Brian Mark, director, Fulcrum
Stephen Stone, chief executive, Crest Nicholson
Adam Mactavish, director, Cyril Sweett

Sponsored by

11.45 Sustainably informed specification - separating the myth from the reality
11.45-12.10
Jeremy Greenwood, managing director, Lafarge Readymix UK

Contaminated Land - finding a way forward?
12.30-12.55
The Thames Gateway has an abundance of contaminated land, but are local authorities and developers any clearer about the way to tackle the issue?
Peter Witherington, managing director, RSK Geoconsult

Basildon
11.45-12.10
Keeping regeneration alive: how the public sector can take the lead in the current economic climate to ensure redevelopment and regeneration programmes stay on track. Speakers include Bala Mahendran, chief executive, Basildon District Council, Tim Johnson, director, DTZ and Ian Butt, development project director, Basildon town centre

Medway
12.30-12.55
Brian Weddell, chief executive of Medway Renaissance, describes progress on Medway's ambitious regeneration

14.00 BH7 Transformational developments - South Essex and North Kent
14.00-15.10
36,000 new homes are planned in south Essex and north Kent. Will these really be sustainable communities and become places where people will choose to live?

Chair: David Liston Jones, TGKP
Sarah Beck, senior regeneration manager, Medway Renaissance
Jeremy Kite, leader, Dartford Borough Council
Malcolm Buckley, leader, Basildon District Council
Jim Coleman, director, Regeneris Consulting

Sponsored by

G7 Orchestrating public and private interests to achieve wider regeneration in the Gateway
14.00-15.10
How to harness the patchwork of funding streams for common benefit and strategies for creating comprehensive regeneration through vehicles such as Building Schools for the Future and others.

Chair: Ken Dylor, chair, The British Property Federation Regeneration Committee
Alistair Walker, partner, Watkins Gray International
Will McKee, chair, TTGDC
Steve McGuckin, head of Ebbsfleet Valley, Land Securities

Sponsored by

14.00 Halving waste to landfill: making it happen in the Gateway
14.00-14.25
Dr Mike Watson, head of construction, wrap and Chindarat Taylor, programme director of Wrap's pathway towards zero waste in the South East

Is there more to Code Level 6 than a misguided aspiration?
14.35-15.15
Speakers include: Brian Mark, director, Fulcrum, Duncan Price, director, ESD, Peter Halsall, managing director, Bioregional Quintain

Land Registry
13.30-13.45
Peter Collis, chief executive of the Land Registry, outlines how the Land Registry can assist with your development and regeneration needs.

Barking and Dagenham
14.00-14.25
Speakers include Mark Bradbury and Wayland Pope from the London Thames Gateway Development Corporation, and Ken Jones from London Borough of Barking & Dagenham

Collaboration across the Gateway
14.40-15.10
Getting to grips with the Gateway's local authorities, and their potential for collaboration.
Noel Foley, associate director, Happold Consulting
Josephine Smit, senior consultant, Happold Consulting

DRINKS!

15.30 Drinks reception
At the Thames Gateway model

15.35 Eugene Dreyer
Urban design director, Farrells

15.45 Sarah Sturrock
Strategy director Thames Gateway, Communities and Local Government

15.55 Neil Taylor
Head of commercial markets, Ordnance Survey

